

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Washington State University Master Gardener volunteer program is celebrating 46 years of service to the people of our state; and

WHEREAS, this model of volunteer service, emulated in all fifty states and numerous foreign countries, was founded by Washington State University in 1973; and

WHEREAS, there are 4,342 Washington State University Master Gardener volunteers who served more than 290,000 Washington State residents in 2018; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated volunteer educators use their love of gardening to enhance natural resources and environmental stewardship, improve the health and wellness of Washington residents, and create and sustain vibrant communities and urban neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, the Master Gardener program sets a remarkable example of voluntary community service by giving over 310,000 hours and returning to Washingtonians more than 10 times the funds expended on the program's maintenance;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim September 22-28, 2019, as in Washington, and I encourage all people in our state to join me in this special observance.

Washington State University Master Gardener Volunteer Week
